

DUBLIN AAA Restaurants

FIRE Restaurant – www.mansionhouse.ie

Dublin's hottest, hippest and much talked about restaurant: 'Fire on Dawson' in Mansion House offers a modern European menu with a twist with something mouth-watering to suit every taste. Its stylish celtic-inspired interior & heated terrace makes 'Fire on Dawson' an absolute must to anyone visiting Dublin. The Mansion House is in a fantastic position on Dawson Street which is on the south-side of Dublin's city centre. It is parallel to Grafton Street, Dublin's busiest shopping street and a stones throw away from St. Stephens Green.

FITZERS Restaurant – www.fitzers.ie Temple Bar

For the best in modern Irish food, dine in Fitzers, located in the centre of cultural life in Dublin- Temple Bar. From the comfort of your table, gaze out of the large arched windows at the rich tapestry of activities such as outdoor exhibitions and street entertainment. Enjoy traditional Irish cuisine with a modern flare by talented Head Chef Carren Simpson from County Waterford. This restaurant has a large downstairs function room equipped with its own bar that may be enjoyed by large groups.

FITZERS Restaurant – www.fitzers.ie Dawson Street (seats groups up to 100)

Located just around the corner from Dublin's most exclusive shopping area, Fitzers on Dawson Street is a long established favourite among lovers of good food. Elegant and airy surroundings complement fabulous, mouth watering menus', best described as 'contemporary European'. Enjoy the heated, covered terrace for a drink or meal all year round.

THE PEARL Brasserie - www.pearl-brasserie.com

The Pearl is a cosy downstairs brasserie. Its extensive wine list consisting of a large Champagne selection, many Old and New world wines and a number of French wines, coupled with its creative cocktails, complemented by the fantastic French cuisine make this restaurant one of the top in Dublin. Drinks and light snacks may be enjoyed upstairs in the Oyster Bar beforehand in a beautiful and relaxing atmosphere which features a large aquarium as its centrepiece.

BLEU Bistro - www.bleu.ie

Head Chef Shane O'Neill's food is based on carefully sourced quality ingredients, skillfully cooked and pleasingly presented. This very comfortably seated restaurant with an outdoor seating area on the happening Dawson Street is an enjoyable venue for a dinner or lunch experience. Bleu features late night service, an added advantage to anyone enjoying their extensive wine list. With their own in-house pastry chef, the desserts will keep everyone salivating until the end.

BANG - www.bangrestaurant.com

This unique three story stunning fusion restaurant is equipped with a menu designed to test your palate. Most of the produce in Bang is organic and they list their suppliers on the menu. With lovely dark wood complemented by pale beige leather this restaurant is classy and relaxing. For a bit more excitement it is equipped with an impressive bar on the lower level. Throughout the restaurant attention to detail and professionalism prevails.

DIEP LE SHAKER - www.diep.net

The surroundings are stylish and sophisticated and blend perfectly with the authentic Royal Thai cuisine served. The restaurant ensures that fresh herbs are flown in weekly from Bangkok, and is the first restaurant to be awarded "The Mark of Quality for Excellence in Service and Cuisine" from the Royal Thai Government. The restaurant also features the Buddha Bar, home to an enormous variety of cocktails and wines.

L'ECRIVAIN - www.lecrivain.com

With Chauffeur Limousines available to and from Dublin City Area, this restaurant is a unique and classy dining experience not to be missed. L'Ecrivain has built itself a reputation for innovative cooking, Irish/French style using the very best of fresh produce in season. Head Chef- Derry is renowned for his culinary expertise, and together with his team of chefs and front of house staff, l'Ecrivain is an experience not to be missed. It is also well known for its fresh fish, which is caught all over Ireland on the same day.

ONE PICO – www.onepico.com

This award winning restaurant is sophisticated, grown-up, and classy for fine dining, with excellent service and fantastic food. It is the sister restaurant to Bleu Bistro located around the corner on Dawson Street. The food is a mixture of European influences in a menu that changes daily. The room is very pleasing and relaxing and the service is second to none.

SHANAHANS - www.shanahans.ie

Shanahans is a wonderful place to dine quietly in beautiful classically proportioned rooms featuring original 18th Century plaster work and rare antiques from the Georgian period. This 250 year old restored Georgian building offers elegant food and service and maintains perfect harmony with the warmth, which personifies Ireland's population, as well a casual atmosphere that allows each guest to feel at home.

PATRICK GUILBAUDS – www.restaurantpatrickguilbaud.ie

This classy, up-scale restaurant is the first and only in Ireland to have two Michelin stars. With five generations of Guilbauds in the catering industry, it is obvious that the business is well understood. They pride themselves on excellent service and spectacular food. Their philosophy is to offer modern classic cuisine using Irish produce in season, cooked simply and served classically. Home to a vast collection of 20th century Irish art and located in the City Centre it is a must visit to anyone in the country.

BROWNES BRASSERIE – www.brownesdublin.com

Brownes Restaurant is one of Dublin's most talked about and stylish restaurants, offering outstanding food served in a spectacular dining room. At Brownes, Executive Chef Tim van Buchem has taken a menu that has served the restaurant well for years and made it more contemporary. The traditional Irish dishes have been given a modern twist with lighter preparation and presentation reflects the diversity of the modern Irish dining landscape.

CHAPTER ONE - www.chapteronerestaurant.com

This Irish-French-flare restaurant is relaxed, comfortable and luxurious while retaining a sophisticated elegance. It has recently been awarded a well deserved Michelin Star for its excellence in service and cuisine. It is home to a uniquely cosy atmosphere revered by the residence of Dublin. It is a must for anyone in the area.

IN MALAHIDE:

CRUZZOS - www.cruzzo.ie

This is an award winning restaurant situated on the waterfront of beautiful Marina Village in Malahide. This jewel uses only the finest and freshest ingredients available and has an extensive menu to choose from specializing in seafood. In this beautiful modern restaurant with stunning views of Malahide Marina, comfort, atmosphere and friendly staff will be enjoyed by all.

IN HOWTH:

AQUA - www.aqua.ie

This beautiful restaurant in the fabulous Howth Village is revered for its contemporary meets cozy atmosphere. The village of Howth has a maritime tradition that stretches back to the beginning of Irish history. These days the sea is alight beneath the pier for stunning views any time of day. Taking full advantage of its waterfront location, it is an ideal destination to watch the sunset across the bay. The views and atmosphere of this fantastic restaurant are matched only by the quality and diversity of the food to be enjoyed here.

Contact us on +353 1 8347 888 or send your enquiry to: doris@wtg.ie