There is something happening nearly every week!
Read on to see the possibilities.

Date	Event
June 26– Aug. 25	Riverdance The spectacular show returns for a summer season in its 12th phenomenal year. The internationally-acclaimed celebration of Irish music, song and dance that has thrilled millions around the world returns to Dublin where it all began in 1005. Discover why nothing in the world compares to the original!
Aug. 1 2007– June 1 2008	Viking Longship Sails Again The Sea Stallion will depart from Roskilde, Denmark in early July and travel across the Irish Sea to Dublin, where she is expected on 14th August. It will be welcomed in a two-day celebration at Custom House Quay. The Ship will dock alongside a specially constructed Viking themed village in Dublin's Docklands, before being transferred for display with an accompanying exhibition of authentic shipbuilding crafts at the National Museum of Ireland.
Aug. 8- Aug. 12	Failte Ireland Dublin Horse Show The Dublin Horse Show is a Dublin institution. A celebration of Ireland's affinity with the horse, from the best show horses to the best international show jumpers. It is one of Ireland's largest events and a highlight of the summer!
